

Junior Golf Academy Offseason Program Outline #1

PGA of Canada Class "A" Member, Travis Glass.

All lessons will take place indoors at Eagle Valley Golf Academy

2021-2022

Off-season academy programs are designed to allow students to learn and develop golf skills.

Players need to maximize their playing time and constantly develop as an athlete in order to understand the mental edge needed to perform at their best and be successful throughout the golf season. With the help of PGA of Canada Class "A" professional, Travis Glass, students will establish their goals along with the road map to accomplish them.

November 1st to December 18th, 2021 (7 weeks)

January 17th to February 12th, 2022 (4 weeks)

February 28th to April 2nd, 2022 (March Break 14-18 no sessions) (4 weeks)

1 session of golf training per week (days and times will be specific to each student)

Due to COVID-19 protocols, all sessions at Eagle Valley Golf Academy will be 55 minutes in length to minimize student cross over/interaction and to allow the EVGA staff to sanitize lesson areas.

This program includes 15 weeks of golf instruction at Eagle Valley Golf Academy's indoor training facility. As noted above, regularly scheduled sessions will not take place over March Break (March 14-18, 2022). Additional sessions will be available for booking throughout that week. Academy program members will receive priority booking and member pricing for these times.
